In brief, it is contended that the Authority has finalised the fees of the Institute and confirmed the Adhoc fees of the earlier period on projected basis. It is submitted that the expenditure considered by the Authority on projected basis of the entire course duration is much less than the actual expenditure. It is submitted that the institute is having documents of financial year 2022-2023 to show the actual expenditure for the year 2022-2023 much more than estimated by the Authority. It is further submitted that the institute has made typographic mistakes while submitting proposal and showed 41 persons employed for security purposes and 51 persons employed for sweeping. It is submitted that the institute has employed 7 person for security purposes and 6 person for sweeping purposes. Due to said typographical mistake the Authority has disallowed the salary expenditure on said count to the extent of 50% by treating the said expenditure as excessive.

The Director of the institute is directed to file an affidavit supporting the oral statement made and produce the information of expenditure incurred towards salary till the month of December 2022 with proof of payment of salary employees such as of form no. 16 , 24 Q quarterly returns submitted with Annexure-II, the documents showing expenditure made towards sweeping and security supported with bills raised by the contractor.
